

1. Joseph went to Egypt about _____ BC. There arose a new king (dynasty) that did not know what Joseph had done for Egypt. He was afraid of this growing number of people who were not Egyptians and made them _____ who had to make _____.
2. Even though male children were to be killed, the mother of _____ saved him and eventually the _____ of Egypt took him to live with her. Because he killed an Egyptian overlord, Moses fled to the _____ where he lived for _____ years.
3. Moses saw a burning _____ where he had an encounter with _____ who sent him back to _____ to bring the Israelites out.
4. After _____ plagues, Pharaoh releases the Israelites and they leave about _____ BC. At Mt. Sinai, God gives the people a _____ which they are to keep and tells them to build a _____ where they are to _____ God.
5. After Moses dies, the new ruler is _____ who helps the people _____ the land. After Joshua the leaders of the people are called _____ and then they have _____.
6. The people frequently fall away into _____ and when they do, God punishes them by bringing other nations against them. In _____ BC the nation divides into _____ kingdoms. The northern ten tribes are taken into captivity by the _____ in 722 BC and the southern tribes are carried away into captivity in _____, the last captives being taken in _____ BC. In _____ BC, Cyrus, the new Persian king, allows the Jews to return to their homeland and to rebuild their _____.
7. God uses “the nation” to teach some important lessons.
 - a. Sin brings harmful _____.
 - b. No person can keep the law to _____.
 - c. Since all violate either the written law (Jews) or the moral law (Gentiles), all are _____ and so, are _____ from God.

8. There is nothing that we, on our own, can do to change being _____ from God. If any change is made, _____ must do it.
9. The nation stage lasted from about _____ BC until _____ came and the final ending was with the destruction of Jerusalem in _____ AD.