

Series: Isaiah 1-39
 Lesson: Isaiah 36-37 - My King Can Beat Your King
 Author: Harold Shank

The biblical God is the supreme God.

- I. Isaiah 36-37 is narrative. Those who teach narrative should focus on these items:
  - a. Read or retell the _____
  - b. Note specific _____ language used in the story.
  - c. Note the _____.
- II. Isaiah 36-37 divides into 9 parts.

36:1-10	Taunt by _____
36:11-12	Response I by _____
36:13-22	Taunt II by _____
37:1-7	Response II by _____ & _____
37:8-13	Taunt III by _____
37:14-20	Response III by _____ prayer
37:21-29	Response IV by _____ oracle
37:30-35	_____ and _____ by Isaiah
37:36-38	Conclusion

- III. How does Isaiah depict Ahaz and Hezekiah? Note similarities and differences. What role does faith play in their lives? What did each one rely on? (Answer on back of this paper)

For more information contact the Church Relations Office at 405.425.5141 or email at churchrelations@oc.edu