

Series: 1 Corinthians
Lesson: 5 - Be Workers
Author: Stafford North

1. List some lessons we learn from 1 Corinthians 3:5-9.
2. Members of the church in Corinth had been given _____ which enabled them to do various _____. They could speak in _____ they had not learned, deliver _____, and _____ the sick. While these miraculous gifts filled an important need during the _____ of the church, they had created _____ for the Corinthian Christians.
3. Paul compares the church to a person's _____. He encourages them to unity by saying that they have the same _____, the same _____, the same _____ and should work for the _____ good. We should be equally thankful for the work of all members of the _____.
4. Paul even mentions how we often bestow special attention on members of our bodies which seem less _____. We can show appreciation to such members of our congregation by:
5. In 1 Corinthians 12:27, Paul makes the point that _____ has a gift to use. 1 Peter 4:11-12, says that each of us has a _____. Each is to use the gift to _____ for the _____ of _____.
6. We should use the term "gift" today in the sense of an _____, an _____, and an _____ to share.
7. If we love God, we will _____ all the workers in the Lord's _____ and treat them all with _____.
8. Our goal should be to have _____ percent of our members involved in ministry.
9. List below some ways you think we could help achieve this goal.

Assignment: Read 1 Corinthians 13:4-5; 6:1-8; and 7:1-5.
