

Series: Understanding Scripture
Lesson: Written Review No. 4
Author: Stafford North

(For use with Lesson No. 5)

1. Draw the circle about context with the words in the proper place.

2. Give an example of a passage we studied the context and found it helpful. Give the Scripture citation if you can. Tell something about why a study of the context was helpful.

3. To remember to ask "who said it and to whom," we use these two words: 4. In Acts 8:22, who spoke to whom? The fact that the person spoken to may be described as a _____ helps us understand how to use this passage.