

Series: Isaiah 1-39
Lesson: Isaiah 9-10 - God of Judgment and Hope
Author: Harold Shank

Isaiah helps the people process the crisis they have just experienced. Isaiah explores three case studies of God's contemporary and future work.

CASE STUDY #1 - Galilee and the world (9:1-7)

- A. Despite the gloom, God's plans include a _____ who will _____ the geographic (Galilee) and political (king) hopes of this prophecy.
- B. There are 4 names of the King and 4 qualities of his rule.

a. Names:

- i. _____
- ii. _____
- iii. _____
- iv. _____

b. Qualities:

- i. _____
- ii. _____
- iii. _____
- iv. _____

CASE STUDY #2 - God's work in N. Israel (9:8-10:4)

- A. God is angry in four ways.
 - a. God's anger at N. Israel's _____. (9:8-12)
 - b. God's anger at N. Israel's _____. (9:13-17)
 - c. God's anger in the _____ of N. Israel (9:18-21)
 - d. God's anger at _____. (10:1-4)

For more information contact the Church Relations Office at 405.425.5141 or email at churchrelations@oc.edu

CASE STUDY #3 - God's word with Assyria (10:5-34)

- A. What images are used to convey the work God had Assyria do?
- B. Why did God object to Assyria?
- C. What were God's plans concerning Assyria?
- D. Who is the remnant?
- E. What plan is outlined in 10:27-24?

There are theological themes in the three case studies. List at least three of these themes.

- A.
- B.
- C.