

Series: Sharing Your Faith
Lesson: Series Contract
Author: Stafford North

1. I am motivated to share my faith because,

2. To meet Christ's Challenge for me to share my faith, I am willing to commit myself to the following:
 - a. _____ To Live the Christian life before my friends and family
 - b. _____ To be active in using conversational evangelism so that I often inject something related to Christ, the church, the Bible or our youth group into the conversations I have with others.
 - c. _____ To get involved with others at school through groups, student activities, athletics, and/or volunteer service so I can make connections that give me an opportunity to share my faith.
3. I have selected the friends I listed below as ones I especially want to influence for Christ. I will pray for them and encourage them spiritually.

4. I plan to use the approaches I have marked below in my efforts to share my faith.
 - a. _____ I will pray regularly for the spiritual development of my friends.
 - b. _____ I will invite someone to class once-a-week, particularly trying to get my special friends to come.
 - c. _____ I will try to bring someone new to our youth activities with the hope of having opportunities for bible study.
 - d. _____ I will start or work with others in starting a home Bible study to which I can bring my friends.
 - e. _____ I will participate in special evangelistic work in our youth group
 - f. _____ I will better prepare myself for sharing my faith by regular Bible reading and study.
 - g. I will commit myself to trying to bring someone to Christ during the next twelve months.
5. I will use the person listed below as an accountability partner to keep myself on track with what I have committed to do.
