

To Be Given With Lesson 6

1. Which enemy of Christ does the beast with two horns like a lamb represent?
 - a. Satan
 - b. The cult of the Emperor Worship
 - c. The city of Rome
 - d. The Roman Empire
2. The first four bowls of God's wrath represent which of the following?
 - a. The downfall of Roman gods
 - b. Attacks on Rome by hostile nations
 - c. Natural disasters which shall befall the Empire
 - d. The assassination of an Emperor
3. The fifth bowl is poured out on:
 - a. The throne of the beast
 - b. The army of the beast
 - c. The city of the beast
 - d. The palace of the beast
4. The sixth bowl is poured out on:
 - a. A river
 - b. A city
 - c. A sea
 - d. A road
5. The six bowls suggest which of the following?
 - a. The partial destruction of the Roman Empire
 - b. The total destruction of the Roman Empire
 - c. The victory of the Roman Empire
 - d. The challenge of the Roman Empire
6. The action of the dragon and beasts between the sixth and seventh bowls to call kings to Armageddon represents:
 - a. A great war in Israel which will happen just before Christ returns
 - b. The efforts of Satan and the beasts to resist God's destruction on them
 - c. A battle in the land of Israel just before Rome would fall
 - d. World War III which would engulf the whole world
7. The prostitute introduced in chapter 17 represents which of the following?
 - a. The concept of immorality which Christians are to avoid
 - b. The city of Jerusalem
 - c. A woman who will lead many in the church astray
 - d. The city of Rome.
8. The rider on the white horse in chapter 19, described as the Word of God and the King of Kings, represents which of the following?
 - a. The church
 - b. The Father
 - c. Jesus Christ
 - d. The Holy Spirit

For more information contact the Church Relations Office at 405.425.5141 or email at churchrelations@oc.edu