

Series: Sharing Your Faith
Lesson: Be Ready to Share Your Faith (2)
Author: Stafford North

Lesson 3 Review Notes:

1. Complete these sentences to show the results of the survey George Barna took among teens about what they are looking for in a church.
 - a. Teens want to see to ...
 - b. Teens want to see how people seem to about ...
 - c. Teens want to hear a good quality ...
 - d. Teens want to know about the theological of the ...
 - e. Teens want to know how much the church is ...
2. The first three factors for effective evangelism we studied are: (the quiz next week will ask you to name all six)
 - a. The Right Motivation
 - b. The Right Involvement
 - c. The Right Person
3. The fourth factor is the right _____
 - a. Use our _____.
 - b. Use our _____.
 - c. Use a _____. Who are some in the Bible who used home Bible studies?
 - d. Use _____ Bible studies who are some in the Bible who used individual Bible studies? What are four approaches to individual study we might use?
4. Lessons we will soon study:
5. _____
6. A set of _____
7. Answering our Friend's _____
8. Ask for someone else to help us _____

9. The fifth factor in effective evangelism is the right _____.
- a. This means we must keep the focus on _____.
 - b. Who wrote his gospel with this focus?
 - c. When speaking to whom did Philip do this? 1.2.
10. The sixth factor in effective evangelism is the right _____.
- a. Be _____
 - b. Be _____
 - c. Be a good _____
 - d. Be _____
 - e. Be _____

Please hand in this sheet with your name on it. Your name signifies that you are willing to make these commitments:

1. I will try to mention Jesus, the church, our youth activities, and/or the Bible more often in my daily conversations.
2. I have chosen one or more special friends to whom I will give some special attention about spiritual things—inviting them to class, church, special youth events, and other things I might be able to do. Put below the name(s) of your special friend(s):
3. _____ I would be willing to serve on a committee to develop a plan for our youth to become more evangelistic.

Name: _____

