

1. The apostle _____ wrote the book of Revelation when he was exiled on the Island of _____.
2. John saw the vision on the _____ when he was in the _____.
3. John saw one who looked like a man but was radiant. He said he was the _____ and the _____ and the _____ one. (v. 17) He was walking among seven _____.
4. Jesus asked John to write down what he saw and _____ it in to seven _____.
5. From the church in Ephesus we learn that Jesus _____ us very well and He likes it when we take a _____ against those who do not teach the truth.
6. From the church in Smyrna we learn that even if we are _____ in this world's goods, we can be truly _____.
7. From the church in Pergamum we learn that Jesus wants us to avoid worshipping _____ and _____ sins. We should let _____ set our standards. Not the world around us.
8. From the church in Thyatira we learn to be _____ in our service.
9. I could improve my service to Christ by:

10. A door Christ has opened for me is:

11. From Laodicea we learn that if we wander away from Christ we should _____.
12. All the letters promise great rewards to those who _____. This is from the Greek word _____.
13. During the week, read the last verse or verses of each of the seven letters and list the rewards Jesus promises to those who overcome.