

Series: 1 Corinthians
Lesson: 6 - Be Unselfish
Author: Stafford North

1. Love often means _____. A person who is _____ is showing unselfishness.
2. A person who is _____ is showing unselfishness.
3. A person who _____ is showing a lack of unselfishness.
4. A person who _____ is not showing unselfishness.
5. A person who is _____ is not showing unselfishness.
6. A person who is unselfish will not be _____ - _____.
7. A person who is _____ is not showing unselfishness.
8. A person who keeps a _____ of wrongs, is not showing unselfishness.
9. When Paul urges one Christian even to accept a _____ rather than take a matter to court with another Christian, he is urging that person to act with _____.
10. Paul also urges the use of unselfishness between two Christians who are married to each other in the matter of their _____.
11. Some places I need to be sure to show unselfishness is in my relationships with:

For the Lesson 7 read 1 Corinthians 2 and 4:1-6.