

Series: 1 Corinthians
Lesson: 7 - Be Steadfast
Author: Stafford North

1. In two columns below, list the way Paul contrasts his message with the message of others.

When Paul refers to a “demonstration of the Spirit’s power,” he is likely referring to _____ which he could do. Some miracles were for _____ of God’s message and others were for _____ from God that the person speaking was His authorized speaker.

2. Paul speaks of God’s secret wisdom to refer to the _____ which God had been gradually revealing since the world _____.
3. Paul said he received the message he had given them from the _____. While the Holy Spirit allowed inspired writers to use their own knowledge and writing style, His guidance extended even to the _____ the writer used.
4. Paul says he did not come with man’s eloquence or _____, but he came with both a _____ of the Spirit and the _____ of the Spirit. We should give such a message very high _____.
5. Paul feels primarily responsible to _____. At the coming of the Lord, he will bring to light _____, expose men’s _____, and give _____ to whom it is due. Paul emphasizes that all men in the church are just co-workers and no one should take _____ in one over the other. _____ will help them keep from this problem.
6. Apollos had earlier not properly understood about _____. A Christian couple, _____ and _____ took him aside and taught him about this topic. Later Apollos came to _____ where he taught correctly and refuted the Jews in public _____. Even though Paul had some reasons to place himself above Apollos, he said it was not right to place either above the other, thus showing the spirit of _____.
7. List below some of the terms Paul uses to describe the message he brought to the Corinthians:
