

Personal Compassion Survey

Evaluate your compassion for those who suffer economically by marking the answer that best describes you.

1. I think about those people who financially suffer in my town.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
2. I am motivated to help relieve the suffering of the poor in my local area.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
3. I attend seminars and workshops that encourage helping the poor.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
4. I have specific goals of how I would like to help relieve the suffering of the poor.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
5. I read books that are written to raise awareness of the needs of the poor.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
6. I am in contact with the poor in order to relieve some burden of theirs.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
7. I give money for the direct purpose of relieving the financial hardship of the poor.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
8. I remember the poor in my prayers.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
9. I encourage my church to get involved in helping the poor.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never
10. I think of God and Jesus as being advocates of the poor.
Always      Often      Seldom Rarely      Never