

1. A Pharisee named _____, who is leading the persecution of Christians in Jerusalem, receives permission to persecute in _____, about _____ miles away.
2. As he nears the city, he sees _____ who speaks to him.
3. His question “what shall I do?” indicates that he _____.
4. His fasting and prayer indicates that he has _____.
5. When Ananias comes to him, he tells him that he should _____ and that will _____ away his _____.
6. This process is much like the story of those on _____ recorded in Acts chapter _____.
7. After his conversation, Paul _____ in Damascus, proving that _____ is the _____.
8. In Jerusalem, _____ helps other Christians accept Saul.