

1. The date is now about _____ BC and the Medes and _____ are now in control. Daniel is one of _____ high ranking administrators over _____ satraps. The king is planning to promote Daniel over the _____ kingdom because he has such _____ qualities.
2. Some of the other officials are opposed to this and contrive a _____ against him. They know of Daniel's prayer life and so get the king to agree to publish a decree that anyone who prays to any _____ or _____ other than the king for _____ days will be cast into a den of _____.
3. Since Daniel regularly prayed _____ times a day with his window open toward _____, he would either have to stop this practice or violate the king's decree. Daniel continues his customary prayer life.
4. When Daniel's enemies report his violation, the king is _____ and looks for a way out of sending Daniel to the lions. Not finding a way around the law, however, the king sends Daniel to the punishment but says, "May your God, whom you serve continually, _____ you.
5. The king couldn't sleep and came early to check on Daniel. Daniel told him that his God had sent an _____ to save him because he found Daniel to be _____ in His sight. The king is _____ and takes Daniel out of the pit and then throws into the pit those who contrived the plot along with their families. Complete the chart below:

World Empire

God's Representative to Them

6. Some of Daniel's good qualities shown in this story are:

7. Other Bible characters with a strong prayer life are: