

Series: 1 Corinthians
Lesson: Be Determined
Author: Stafford North

1. Paul had the right to ask for _____ support but chose not to so he would not be accused of preaching for _____. Paul feels obligated because Christ directly called him to _____ and because he feels a deep _____ for the salvation he has received.
2. In 1 Corinthians 9:19-23 Paul compares himself to a _____. Paul asserts that he both _____ and is a _____. Paul demonstrates his obligation by becoming _____ things to _____ men so that he might _____ some.
3. In Romans 1:16, Paul writes that he is not _____ of the gospel of Christ.
4. Among us, some who exhibit ‘becoming all things to all men’ are:
5. List below some ways we can show our sense of obligation to Christ:
6. In 1 Corinthians 9:24-27, Paul compares the Christian life to _____ and _____. Lessons we learn from these comparisons are:

On the back of this sheet, list at least three ways you will seek to carry out the obligation you feel to Christ for saving you.